EXCLUSIVE RESIDENCE FOR SALE IN TUSCANY

Historic building in the centre of Florence in a renown artistic area. With artistic plaster finish and distinct windows by Buontalenti. Believed to have been home to the Venezian Bianca Cappello who was rumoured to be the lover of Francesco de' Medici. Highly decorated in the 'grotesca' style of the period by Bernardino Poccetti, this street is one of the most elegant among the most beautiful streets in Florence.

At the corner with Via dello Sprone, which is characterised by the fountain and beautiful balcony that opens onto Borgo San Jacopo which is one of the oldest streets in Florence, recently made pedestrian only. This property has a postcard terrace view over the beautiful city of Florence.
